OFF THE RECORD

SONNY VINCENT - THE GOOD, THE BAD, THE UGLY

Who is Sonny Vincent? Former Testors axe slinger Sonny Vincent returns with his best album to date and one filled with a lot of surprises. The Testors were a late-'70s New York punk band that was most famous for opening up for the Dead Boys first U.S. tour. For the last decade he's been steadily cranking out solo records and achieving Johnny Thunders-like cult status in Europe. Here in North America he's still fairly unknown, but The Good, The Bad, The Ugly could change all that. Fast, hard, and simple is the formula, punk rock but with better lyrics than most. The song Trans-Love recalls the rise of the late '60s Detroit rock scene that spawned his heroes the mighty Stooges and MC5, while Crazy Ride is rippin' too, with it's balls out riffing and cannonball drum beat. Check it out.

AT THE MOVIES

DAREDEVIL

In this action-adventure fantasy based on the popular Marvel comic books, Daredevil (Ben Affleck) is a night-roving superhero bent upon maintaining justice. Though he is blind, he has extraordinary hearing, touch, taste, and smell and can therefore overcome daunting challenges. His girlfriend, Elektra (Jennifer Garner), is equally tough, endowed with super heroine warrior skills not the least of which is a mastery of martial arts. Together the sexy pair battles the forces of evil, until the day when fate forces them to opposite sides. Affleck pulls of an admirable and believable job as Daredevil, while Michael Clarke Duncan steals the show as an interesting choice for Wilson "Kinpipin" Fisk. Worth it for the action scenes featuring Elektra alone.

IGBY GOES DOWN

Surrounded by a schizophrenic father, a self-absorbed, distant mother and a shark-like young Republican brother, Igy Slocumb (Kieran Culkin) is alienated from his family and his class. Seventeen-year-old Igy is a rebel with a cause to break free from his pill-popping mother (Susan Sarandon), his schizophrenic dad (Bill Pullman) and his fascist brother (Ryan Phillippe). He's been kicked out of every prep school on the East Coast and has skipped out on his stint at a military academy to hide out in New York in an artist loft owned by his godfather (Jeff Goldblum). There he stays with his godfather's dancer mistress (Amanda Peet) and enters into an affair with her friend Sookie (Claire Danes), a sexually promiscuous Bennington student. It's a quirky, kicky kind of film that spotlights disillusioned youth, but here with a social conscience, not violence.

THE BUZZ...

Chicago led Academy Award contenders Tuesday with 13 nominations, including best picture. Other best-picture nominees for the 75th annual Oscars were Gangs of New York, The Hours, The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers and The Pianist. Besides best picture, Chicago scored nominations for lead actresses Renee Zellweger, supporting actresses Queen Latifah and Catherine Zeta-Jones and supporting actor John C. Reilly.

The surviving members of the Grateful Dead, who retired the group's name and dubbed themselves The Other Ones after the death of leader Jerry Garcia, have decided on another name change to The Dead.

The record price and epic length of the new Harry Potter novel hasn't stopped the publisher from expecting extraordinary sales. Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix, hitting bookstores June 21, has a first printing of 6.8 million.

Voters for the Razzies, an annual spoof of the Academy Awards, picked Britney Spears' teen buddy flick Crossroads for eight Razzie nominations while Madonna's island-romance bomb Swept Away received seven, including worst picture and worst actress for both movies.

The latest reality game show is raising the stakes to $1 billion. The WB is close to inking a deal to produce a two-hour live special with a whopping $1 billion jackpot, the most prize money offered in television history. But don't bother bugging the WB for an audition. Contestants will have to win their spots on the show via specially marked Pepsi products. The strategy is being likened to a real-life Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory.

The Santa Clause star Tim Allen is in negotiations with Paramount to develop and star in the studio's remake of

THE SIMPSONS HITS 300

The Simpsons marks its 300th episode Sunday, and with Fox renewing the program for two more seasons, it will become the longest-running sitcom ever (with The Adventures of Ozzie & Harriet set to fall to second).

Father Knows Best and is in early discussions with the Walt Disney Co. about a potential two-picture deal that would include another installment of the successful Santa franchise.

The search for a singer to front the new band featuring former Guns N' Roses guitarist Slash, bassist Duff McKagan and drummer Matt Sorum is being documented for an upcoming VH1 reality TV show. More than 500 vocalists have sent demos to the group, which also includes guitarist Dave Kushner. Among the hopeful finalists is ex-Skid Row singer Sebastian Bach.
