THE GETAWAY

New for you PlayStation 2 owners comes this high riveting action packed blast. When Mark Hammond finally got out of prison, he thought he'd never get involved with a life of crime ever again. Boy, was he wrong. Play as Hammond in this mission-based action title set in London, England. Quite a bit of the game play centers on driving (there are more than 70 licensed vehicles), and the landscape includes 20 miles of real London terrain. Among the many modes of play, one challenges you to take snapshots of particular London landmarks, and another lets you play a corrupt cabby. With more than 52 missions, there's plenty here to keep you busy.

AT THE MOVIES

OLD SCHOOL

For all you guys out there who are 30+ with a baby in your arms and another little guy who fights endlessly with the little whiner, while longing for dear old alma mater, this is the film for you. Old School is a raucous comedy about a trio of twenty something buddies that try to recapture the outrageous, irrepressible fun of their college years by starting their own off-campus frat house. This film proves that you can go home again and what's more age need not prevent you from enjoying the coeds, even the high-school seniors, as you wished you did before. Blessed with some gifted comic actors, particularly with Vince Vaughn playing well against his "Psycho" type with Will Ferrell as the fall guy and Luke Wilson as straight man. Like Animal House on Geritol.

ONE HOUR PHOTO

Robin Williams delivers an eerie performance in this creepy thriller. Sy Parrish (Williams) is a loner, hiding from the world in his one-hour photo kiosk. Without a life of his own, he turns to his customers to fill his void. For years he has lovingly and painstakingly developed photographs for the Yorkin family since their son was a baby. But as the Yorkins' lives become fuller, Sy's only seems lonelier, until he eventually convinces himself he's part of their family and tries to insinuate himself into their lives. When Sy's picture-perfect fantasy collides with an ugly dose of reality, what happens next is evil and frightening.

THE BUZZ...

P.O.D. have recorded the lead-off single for The Matrix: Reloaded, the sequel to the hit Keanu Reeves movie. Also set to appear on the soundtrack, due in May, are Rob Zombie and Deftones, both of whom will contribute new, previously-unreleased tracks to the collection.

American Idol creators are ready to pull the plug on a phony operator. The star-makers are suing a sneaky telemarketing firm they accuse of setting up a number that snags callers who mislead Idol's toll-free number. According to the suit filed by the shows producers, a Utah firm called Telemarketing Inc. has set up an 800 number that shares the same final digits as the talent show's toll-free 866 number.

Queens rapper 50 Cent rolled over several sales landmarks to become 2003's newest superstar. The former crack-peddling rapper, known as Curtis Jackson on his extensive criminal rap sheet, debuted at number one with Get Rich or Die Tryin', which sold 872,000 copies. 50 Cent's monster bow gives him the best single week sales of 2003, the best single week sales of any rapper besides Eminem, and the best first week ever for a major label debut.

Evan "Joe Millionaire" Marriott has been approached by the WWE several times over the last few months about doing an angle with WWE Diva Trish Stratus. Marriott turned down the WWE deal saying "it just wasn't the right time for him."

After exploring the New York dating scene with its hit comedy Sex and the City, HBO is setting its sights on Los Angeles. The cable network has inked a deal with indie writer-director Valerie Breiman for her to write an untitled adult ensemble comedy pilot about male and female friends in the City of Angels.

NO OLD SPICE REUNION?

The Spice Girls got back together - but it was just for dinner. All five former Girls - including Geri Halliwell - gathered together for the first time since 1998 and rumors were rampant that the meeting was part of a reunion plan. Despite claims that the event was purely social, a greatest hits package and reunion tour could indeed be on the way.

Judi Dench is in final negotiations to star opposite Vin Diesel in Universal Pictures' Chronicles of Riddick for writer-director David Twohy. Radar Pictures and One Race Prods. Production begins in Vancouver in April. Colm Feore has come aboard to play the lead villain in the project, which is a sequel to the 2000 film Pitch Black, about an intergalactic prisoner named Riddick who has the ability to see in the dark.

The Los Angeles sheriff's department is granting a request by TV journalist Barbara Walters to interview actor Robert Blake who has seen two defense lawyers quit his murder case because of his insistence to go on TV.

If you want to see Ozzy Osbourne perform his one-off gig at The Joint at the Hard Rock Cafe in Las Vegas on Friday, March 14th, be prepared to fork over $150+ for general admission, and $300+ for balcony seats.

The current working plan for the WrestleMania main-event is to have the big Steve Austin vs. The Rock rematch. Originally the WWE was hoping to have Goldberg vs. The Rock headline the annual classic, but negotiations between both sides seem to have fallen flat at this point.

Def Leppard have begun lining up US tour dates. You can check them out live in St. Paul MN at the Excel Energy Center on April 4th.

AC/DC will be inducted into the Rock 'N' Roll Hall of Fame by Aerosmith frontman Steven Tyler. The 18th annual induction ceremony will also feature U2 inducting The Clash, No Doubt frontwoman Gwen Stefani representing The Police, Billy Joel speaking for The Righteous Brothers, and Elton John inducting Elvis Costello & The Attractions. An edited version of the induction ceremony will air March 16 at 9 p.m. ET on VH1.
